

TRAVEL WITH A PURPOSE

CHAIR THE HOPE

EMBRACE THE GUANAJUATO CULTURE!

As soon as you arrive in Guanajuato, you will be struck by its warm and colorful ambiance. The historic downtown is full of life, music, and street food. You will have the chance to join a "Callejonada" tour and walk/roll through different areas of the city with a local band of musicians singing and playing for you. It's the perfect way to immerse yourself in the local culture and meet some of the friendliest people you'll ever encounter.

But that's not all! We will take you to the picturesque town of San Miguel Allende, where you will stay in a beautiful hotel that used to be a hacienda. You'll have the chance to stroll around the cobblestone streets, admire the impressive architecture, and indulge in local cuisine.

We will take part in a piñata workshop where you'll create piñatas to take to homes of some wheelchair recipients. It's a fun, hands-on experience that will bring out your creative side and allow you to connect with the local art and culture.

Our favorite events are the humanitarian projects with delivering wheelchairs, swimming with patients at pool therapy, visiting an orphanage, and more. You'll get a firsthand experience to see the impact of your service and meet amazing people, all while giving them hope for a brighter future.
